

Curriculum Vitae Prof. Dr. Daniel Erlacher

(version: January 2017)

Professional appointments

since 2015	Associate Professor, Institute of Sport Science, University of Bern, Switzerland
since 2011	Lecturer, Institute of Sport Science, University of Bern, Switzerland
2002-2011	Research assistant, Heidelberg University, Germany
03-04 2008	Visiting researcher, Toho and Tokyo Gakugei University, Japan
09-10 2007	Visiting researcher, Toho, Fukuoka, Nara, Tokyo Gakugei University, Japan
2003-2005	Visiting researcher, Central Institute of Mental Health in Mannheim, Germany
08-10 2003	Visiting researcher, Stanford University, USA
04-08 1999	Internship, psychophysiological laboratory, Stanford University, USA
1998-1999	Internship, motor control laboratory, Oregon State University, USA

Education

2012	Venia Docendi (Umhabilitation) at University of Bern, Switzerland
2011	Post-doctoral studies (Habilitation) at Heidelberg University, Germany
2005	Doctor in Sport Sciences (Dr. phil.) at Heidelberg University, Germany
2001	Magister in Sport Sciences at Heidelberg University, Germany
1995	Technical highschool at Carl-Benz-Schule in Mannheim, Germany
1993	Educational training (electrician) at Siemens Company in Mannheim, Germany

Awards

2013	DOSB-research award 2011-12 (second place) given by DOSB
2006	Young investigator award given by Heidelberg University
2005	Young investigator award given by the German Association of Sport Science
2005	Poster award given by the German Association of Sport Psychology
2005	Reinhard-Daug's award given by the dvs-section motor control and learning
2002	Young investigator award given by the Körber-Stiftung
2001	Hermann-Rieder award given by the Institute of Sports and Sport Science